

why should xm stop all that it does, its the best radio anyone could ask for plus we pay for it so we want as much as we can get and to have the weather is very convinient especially when it scrolls right across the screen, who wouldn't want that?? keep xm and everything they got because this is something the people want